My Moon Garden Thankful Jar

*Inspired by Grandmère's Garden Under the Moon

Each night before Thanksgiving, write or draw one thing you are thankful for on a leaf. Color it in when it's full. Watch your jar grow, one moonlit leaf at a time.

This jar belongs to: _____

Thankful Questions

*Three gentle questions to ask after reading Grandmère's Garden Under the Moon

1. What did we grow this year? (a skill, a friendship, a plant, a new word)
2. What did we have to wait for?
3. Who helped us grow, and how can we thank them?

Draw or write who helped you grow:

Classroom tip: take turns around the circle, then draw the answer to question 3 as a thank-you card. · Free from griotmoon.com · PaWa Press

✂ cut along the dashed lines · two cards per page

Thankful Questions

*Three gentle questions to ask after reading Grandmère's Garden Under the Moon

1. What did we grow this year? (a skill, a friendship, a plant, a new word)
2. What did we have to wait for?
3. Who helped us grow, and how can we thank them?

Draw or write who helped you grow:

Classroom tip: take turns around the circle, then draw the answer to question 3 as a thank-you card. · Free from griotmoon.com · PaWa Press